

What Does Sprawl Really Look Like?

Aren't You Glad That You Don't Have to Live in Sprawl Like This?

When You can Live Here

Most of the planner's dream homes are along the East Side light rail line, except the top picture which is infill in what was a nice N.E. neighborhood, the third row down brick giant is in the Pearl (Waterfront Urban Renewal District) and the fifth row down is a beautiful herd of row houses in St. Johns.

All of the ugly sprawl pictures are from Southwest Portland, between the Sellwood bridge and Lake Oswego.

More at www.PortlandFacts.com